

The IMAX, Waterloo

Spectacular / London

The largest and most unique advertising canvas in Europe

At 1,734m² the IMAX offers a truly unique advertising experience on a global icon. There is only one IMAX and its impact is impossible to replicate.

Central to the bustling transport hub of Waterloo Station and dominating four key vehicular routes (including Waterloo bridge) the IMAX delivers against both the pedestrian/transport audience and the roadside out of home audience. This is a unique audience delivery position producing the highest Adult reach of any individual site in the country, 3.5 million. The IMAX is limited to a maximum of 26 clients per year and its brand count includes some of the world's biggest and best known brands.
